Approved For Release 2002/05/08/$CHAGROP 70890338R000200020031-0 1 0 MAY 1958

T House Watchdog Unit Retained

The action came by voice from $875,000 to $550,000. vote and without a word of de-bate after House leaders ar-mended to the House by its ad-ranged a quiet compromise in ministration committee, the years ago as a special subcom-

United Press International III.), chairman of the subcom-The House voted yesterday mittee's parent Government needed to stave off the com-to continue its freedom-of-in-Operations Committee, had or-mittee's reorganization. Howform at i on subcommittee, dered the information subcomever, committee sources said which had been marked for extinction after battling government secrecy since 1955. ... budget for the year was cut. The anti-secrecy subcommittee, headed since its inception a dispute over the scheduled government operations group mittee to investigate alleged abolition of the subcommittee got back $225,000 of the withholding of information by on June 1. $325,000 budget reduction. government agencies from Rep. William L. Dawson (D. This fell $25,000 short of the Congress and from the public.